

Meet Our Eagles

Angel came to the National Eagle Center in 2000. She had been found on the ground with a broken wing near Grantsburg, WI in 1999. She was just a fledgling and had been surviving on scraps of fish from nearby herons' nests.

In her years here, Angel has matured from a dark headed juvenile to a fully mature, white-headed female bald eagle.

LEARN MORE