

Remember Me
and Understand Why

If you ever see a homeless person, remember me. Understand why, and say a prayer for them.

If you ever see a hungry child, remember me. Understand why, and give a little compassion.

If you ever know someone who was abused, remember me. Understand why, and give them hope and comfort.

If you ever should dislike someone, remember me. Understand why, and forgive as God forgives us.

If you ever should feel life is unfair, remember me. Understand why, and be thankful for all your blessings in life for life is too precious to waste on foolish thoughts.

Remember me and understand why, and you too will see that you're a survivor for in the end of your struggles in life, you'll find the pot of gold from above full of hope, love, compassion, wisdom, and freedom awaiting you.
